PARTICIPANT BOOKLET

Group Discussion

- 1. Why is courage such a significant part of leading from where we are (i.e. leading in our schools, our churches, our home, or our workplace)?

---

---

---

---

- 2. Acts of courage can happen on the grand scale and on the smaller, day-to-day life level. Can you share an example of how a past experience helped you courageously address a challenge?

---

---

---

---

3. Please share a time when you had to put aside your own viewpoint to see things from another person's point of view? What did you learn from that experience?

---

---

---

4. Think about something you are passionate about or that moves you. What would motivate you to take action?

---

---

---

---

5. A comment was made in the interview that we won't always agree with others. What could we do if we didn't agree with someone, but we still have to work with them
